May their memory be for a blessing

WE REMEMBER

THE SIX MILLION JEWS WHO PERISHED IN THE HOLOCAUST

May we remember those who died at the hands of terrorists and in defense of our nation –
In Israel, Afghanistan, Iraq, The United States and all the world during the past year.

MAY THEIR MEMORY BE A BLESSING

Pious words of loving remembrance
Borne by the wish to keep immortal
Those who were dearest to us in life.

“May their memory be a blessing. . .”
Need it be but a sigh of our soul,
Just a child-like cry for a wonder,
Or – a magic charm to protect us. . . ?

“May their memory be a blessing,”
Means, in the words of our ancient masters:
“May all the good they did in their lives,
Keep their names from being forgotten!”

“May their memory be a blessing,”
Is an appeal – not to God, but to us:
No one is dead whose name is still blessed,
No one is gone who still lives in his deed!”

“May their memory be a blessing,”
Make it a blessing for new generations –
Make it hallow our halls of study –
Make it part of our House of Prayer!

An incentive to Jewish learning,
A memorial to God’s greater glory,
An expression of love never ending.

-Rabbi Harris H. Hirshberg, z”l
Rabbi, Temple Judea, 1957 - 1980
